

Where is our information?

Our Information Centre and Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS) staff are also available to help people access the information they need, even when they don't have access to a phone or the internet.

We also have visiting staff from independent advice agencies such as Citizens Advice Bureau, who can help you access information from us or from other organisations.

Our Data Awareness manager manages requests for information and can help requesters and staff.