

Publication Scheme

- We shall review the information available under this scheme at regular intervals and monitor how it is operating.
- The Freedom of Information Act does not change the right of patients to protection of their patient confidentiality in accordance with Article 8 of the Human Rights Convention, the Data Protection Act 1998 and at common law.
- Maintaining the legal right to patient confidentiality continues to be an important commitment on our part.