

Breathlessness study day

17 August 2015

The study day is suitable for any health care professional wishing to develop their knowledge and skills in non-pharmacological breathlessness management. Please see the flyer for further details: